PRIMARY EXAMINER

Art Unit: 3621

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. This is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance. The closest prior art Wand U.S. Pat. No. 6,885,748 discloses a method/system for protection of digital works.

JP 2004070573, Inoue Norio discloses a digital contents unauthorized copy preventing system capable of preventing copy.

However, neither Wand nor Inoue singularly or in combination discloses the recited feature:

As per claims 1 and 21 "ascertaining terms for providing a protected material to a prospective recipient according at least in part to information of unauthorized copying of other protected material previously provided to said prospective recipient, and providing or withholding a copy of said protected material to said prospective recipient in accordance with said ascertained terms".

As per claims 41 and 52 "detecting at least one identification embedded in a copy of protected material procured from a distribution channel, and storing information of said protected material according to said at least one identification in a database so as to be indicative of unauthorized copying of said protected material".

As per claim 63 "a distribution server having a second program for ascertaining terms for providing a protected material to a prospective recipient according at least in part to said information in said database, and providing or withholding a copy of said protected material to said prospective recipient in accordance with said ascertaining terms".
